Object: Telemecanique Sensors Products PFAS Declaration (PFAS: Per- and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances)

Dear Customer,

TMSS France and its affiliated companies are carefully following the global regulatory landscape, including the proposed restriction on per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS).

As per our commitment, please find below the information related to the presence of PFAS in Telemecanique Sensors' products, to the best of our knowledge and as of the date of publication of this information. This declaration is based on data provided by our suppliers and/or manufacturers. While we strive for accuracy and timeliness, TMSS France cannot be held responsible for any errors or omissions resulting from third-party sources.

This document reflects the regulatory status of the product as of its publication date. Such status may be subject to change due to modifications in product design, regulatory requirements, or the acquisition of additional information from suppliers and internal investigations. TMSS France and its affiliates shall not be held liable for any subsequent changes in the regulatory status of substances occurring after the date of this declaration.

Best Regards,
